CLYDE R. ANDERSON LAKE CITY, MI

1925 ~ 2009

Passed from this world to eternity with God February 12, 2009 at his home surrounded by family. Clyde was born in Ypsilanti, MI on December 16, 1925 to Alvin K. and Margaret (Smith) Anderson. He attended Ypsilanti Public Schools and graduated from Florida Naval Academy in St. Augustine, FL. Back in Ypsilanti he met the love of his life, Marine Millard. They married and raised three children in Ypsilanti, later moving to Pinckney, then Dexter and finally settling in Lake City. He was a member of Chilson Hills Baptist Church of Howell of which he and his wife were founding members. He served as treasurer for many years. Clyde worked for Argus Camera in Ann Arbor making lenses. He also worked for Buhr Tool and Machine in Ann Arbor and Hydra-Matic in Ypsilanti as a gear cutter. He retired in 1991 Hydra-Matic. Great with his hands, Clyde had a passion for building model cars, airplanes and boats from kits or designing his own and constructing them from balsa wood. He also made each of his three married children a Christmas Village, which are treasures to this day. He also loved woodworking and made several items including step stools, toy chests, decorative shelves and kitchen cabinets. And how many people can say they built a house? Clyde built two! Surviving are his wife Marine of Lake City, children Debera (John) McCluer of Hillsdale, Alvin (Beth) Anderson of Dexter, Margaret (Glen) Baker of Lake City; sisters Elva (Vernon) Leighton and Trudy Lay both of Ypsilanti; 12 grandchildren and 7 great grandchildren.
