

Local Farewells...

Frank A. Rominski Jr.
Of Ann Arbor, MI.

Born in a Polish section of West Detroit, Frank moved to Ypsilanti in 1919. He would meet Frances his wife, 25 years later, when he stood as Best Man for one of his brothers. Frances stood as a Maid of Honor for her friend. Married 8th of November 1941, they lived and traveled the world together until Fran was afflicted with Alzheimer's. Lovingly, patiently, he cared for her until her death in 2003. A broken hip in 2007 kept him from driving. The youngest of his family, his mother had 23 pregnancies, 18 live births and 13 children who lived to the age of 4. They preceded him in death. From farming by horse to satellite communications this was a great era. Mass will be held on Friday, December 9, 2011 10:30 AM, at St. Frances of Assisi of Ann Arbor with gathering time at 9:30 AM. Please leave a Message of Comfort to Frank's family by calling 877-231-7900 or sign his guestbook at www.borekjennings.com
